

Masks intro

Trust is another theme of Lammas. It's a day of celebration. We aren't going to worry about what could happen between now and the last harvest. Sun, wind, rain, drought—today is just not the day to worry about that. Trust that all will be right with your future.

Today we let go of what may be ahead of us and celebrate that which is. There are many blessings around us. Take note of the beauty in your life. Trust that you are where you are supposed to be right now; here, surrounded by nature and the loving sisters that can see the beautiful person you are.

It's time to trust, relax and receive.
